How To Connect on Android Phones and Tablets

Images were created using Android 6.0.1 on a Samsung Galaxy phone. Other vendors of Android may differ in the exact instructions
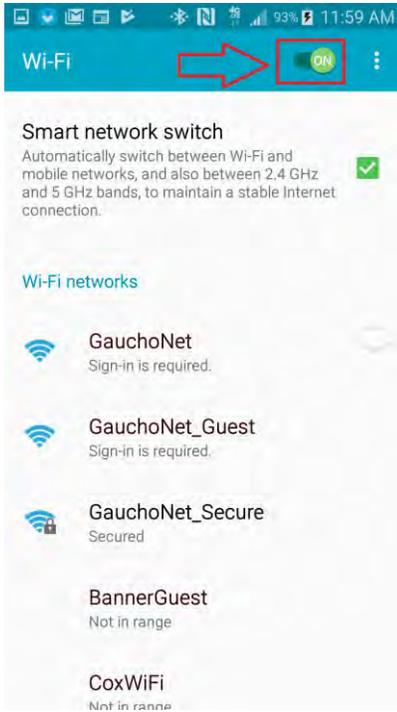

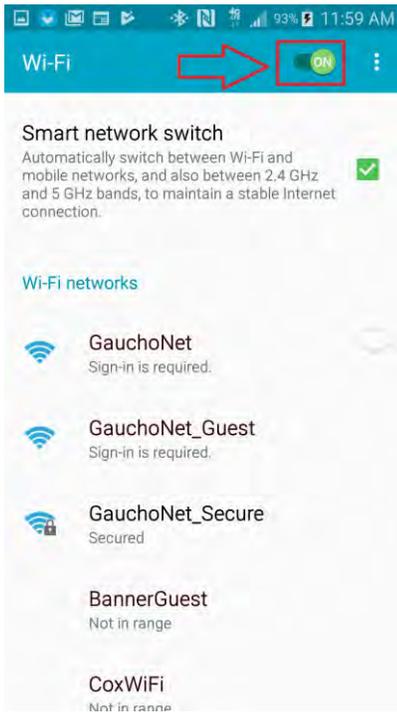

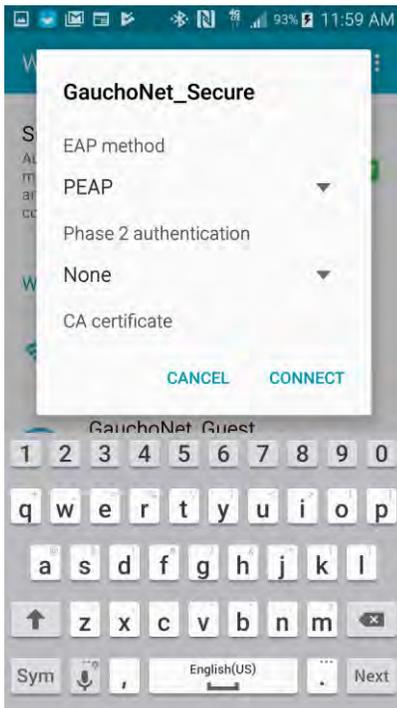

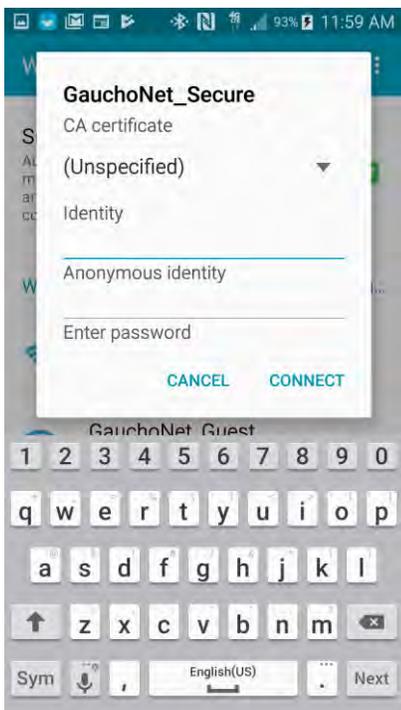

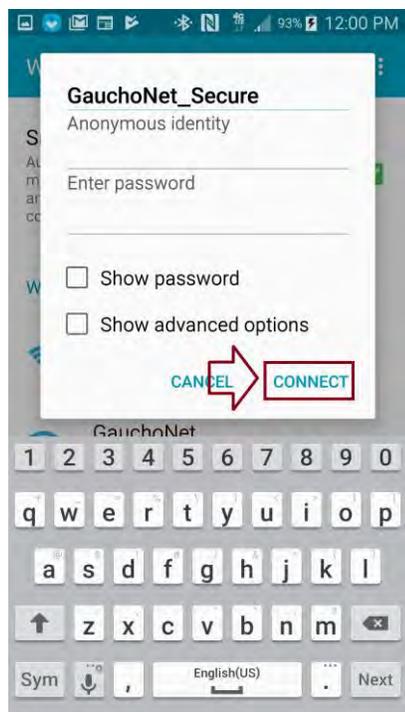

| | |
|---|---|
| 2 | Press the "Apps" icon. |
| 3 | Press the "Settings" icon. |

| 4 | Press the "Wi-Fi" icon. |
|---|---|
|   | Enable your Wi-Fi. |

| | |
|---|---|
| 5 | Press "GauchoNet_Secure" and connect to it. |
| 6 | Configure the following settings:<table><tr><td>1</td><td>Set EAP method to: PEAP</td></tr><tr><td>2</td><td>Set Phase 2 auth to: None</td></tr></table> |

| 7 | Configure the following settings: | |
|---|---|---|
| | 1 | Set CA Certificate to: (Unspecified)Depending on your phone, you may need to set this to "None" or "Do Not Validate." |
| | 2 | Set Identity to: yourmeid@mcccd.org |
| | 3 | Anonymous Identity: leave this field blank |
| | 4 | Enter Password: Enter your MEID password |

| | |
|---|---|
| 8 | Press "Connect." |
| 9 | You should now be connected to GauchoNet_Secure. |